

The 1932 Caring Society

Make a lasting impact today!

Planned gifts are the ultimate expression of confidence and commitment to Council for Relationships and a demonstration of caring and concern for the mental health and well-being of the individuals, couples, families, and communities that we serve.

A planned gift to Council for Relationships enables you to support our mission and the more than 5,000 people who benefit from Council's programs each year. Council for Relationships is a registered non-profit organization, and your planned gifts are exempt from income, gift, and estate taxes.

Providing clinical care, education, and research since 1932, Council for Relationships has been a leader in the field with consistent growth and improvement for 88 years and will continue to grow and evolve based on the needs of the communities and people we serve in the future.

Council for Relationships' mission is to help people from all walks of life improve their important relationships by providing exemplary therapy, educating and training clinicians in the family systems approach, and advancing the behavioral health field through research.

You can support Council for Relationships with a Planned Gift by:

- ❖ Designating a specific dollar amount or percentage of your estate to be given through your will;
- ❖ Identifying Council for Relationships as the beneficiary of your insurance policy, which does not require you to change your will or other aspects of your estate plan;
- ❖ Designating Council for Relationships as the beneficiary of all or part of your IRA (using a beneficiary designation form provided by your custodian). Of note, the full value of the gift is transferred tax-free at your death and your estate receives an estate tax charitable deduction; or,
- ❖ Donating readily marketable securities, including stocks, bonds, short-term commercial paper, and certificates of deposit.
